LUKE 10:38-42

Jesus and His disciples had been going to many towns to teach people. As they traveled, the men stopped to talk to people and help them know about God.

One day when Jesus and the disciples were traveling, they came to a village. A woman named Martha welcomed Jesus to the village and asked Him to go to her home to visit.

Martha's sister, Mary, lived with Martha. Together the women prepared for their special guest. After working a while, Mary sat down on the floor near Jesus to listen to everything He said. Mary must have known the things Jesus said were very important. Mary wanted to learn from Jesus.

This made Martha upset. She had worked and worked in the house to make Jesus' visit special. Now her sister had stopped working. Martha went to Jesus.

"Jesus, don't You care that my sister has left all the work for me to do? Tell her to give me a hand."

Jesus could see Martha's tired face. He kindly said, "Martha, Martha. You are worried and upset about many things. But only one thing is important."

Then Jesus said, "Mary has made the right choice."

Jesus wanted Martha to know that loving Jesus and learning from Him was the most important thing to do.
