ISAIAH 6

Isaiah lived in Jerusalem. God chose Isaiah to be a prophet—someone who told people messages from God. Isaiah helped people know what God wanted them to do and what would happen in years to come. Isaiah wrote about the things he told the people.

Isaiah lived during a time when kings ruled the land. Many of the messages Isaiah heard from God were about the kings and the wrong things they were doing. God was not pleased with the kings.

One time after one of the kings died, Isaiah had something like a dream. The dream was about God. Isaiah saw beautiful creatures. They surrounded God as He sat on His throne in the temple. The creatures said, “Holy, holy, holy is God.” Then the doors of the temple shook, and smoke came into the temple.

In his dream, Isaiah was frightened. One of the creatures went to Isaiah and touched his mouth. Then Isaiah heard a voice say, “Who should I send? Who will go?” It was God talking to Isaiah!

Right away Isaiah answered, “Here I am. Send me!”

So God told Isaiah to go to people and do what God said.

Isaiah asked God how long He wanted Isaiah to preach to the people. God then answered, “Until the people no longer live in the land.”

Isaiah obeyed all that God told him to do and say.

Isaiah's Dream

Isaiah had a dream. A creature touched Isaiah's mouth.

Look at the items below and cross out the ones not usually used in or near a person's mouth.

You can use your mouth (voice) to tell about God.

Isaiah said, "Here I am. Send me."
