LUKE 24:33-53

Jesus' disciples were in a house in Jerusalem. Suddenly two men arrived at the house with exciting news. The men had seen Jesus, and He was alive!

"Jesus is alive!" the men exclaimed. The men began to tell their story about walking down the road and meeting a stranger. The stranger talked with them, then went to the men's house to eat. While the men ate, they discovered the stranger was Jesus.

As the men told their story to the disciples, someone appeared in the room. It was Jesus!

At first the disciples were frightened. Jesus asked them, "Why are you troubled? Look at Me. Touch Me. I am alive."

Then Jesus asked the disciples for some food to eat. The men gave Jesus some fish, and He ate it.

After Jesus ate, He told the disciples that everything that had been written about Him in the Bible had come true.

Jesus said, "You have seen everything that has happened, and you know I am alive again. Now, go to Jerusalem, then all the world, and tell the people this good news."

Jesus blessed the disciples, then He left them to go be with God in heaven.

The disciples returned to Jerusalem with joy.
