1 KINGS 3:3-15

King Solomon loved God. Solomon obeyed God's commandments. Solomon remembered the things his father, King David, had taught him.

One night Solomon had a dream. In the dream, God spoke to Solomon and asked him, "What should I give you?"

Solomon answered God. Solomon said, "You showed Your love to my father, David. You have allowed me to be the king after my father. But I am young, God. Please make me wise and help me make good decisions."

God was pleased that Solomon asked for wisdom. God told Solomon, "I will do what you have asked. You will be the wisest man to live and have an understanding heart. I will also give you riches and honor. Solomon, if you follow Me and obey My commandments just as your father, David, did, I will give you a long life."

Then Solomon woke up and realized he had had a special dream. Solomon got up and went to Jerusalem and offered special thanks to God for giving him what he asked for. Now Solomon knew he would know how to be a good and wise king.
