

PETER TOLD ABOUT THE BIBLE

2 PETER 1

Peter was living in the city of Rome. He had traveled to many places teaching people about Jesus. Now Peter was old and he wanted to write another letter to help people keep on loving Jesus and remember Him.

Peter wanted people to believe what the Bible said about Jesus. Peter said: "The things you hear about Jesus are not made-up stories. They are real and true. I know because I was with Jesus and I saw Him do wonderful things. I even heard God's voice say Jesus is God's Son."

Peter knew that prophets from long ago told about Jesus and wrote about Him in the Bible. Peter believed what was written in the Bible about Jesus. He knew Jesus was the One God sent to help people.

Peter said: "Pay attention to the Bible. Learn from it. It is like a light that shows the way to Jesus. You should know this: everything written in the Bible is true. God is the one who told men what to write."
